

FUNCTIONS WITH LOW C-DIFFERENTIAL UNIFORMITY

Daniele Bartoli

Università degli Studi di Perugia

Recently, the c -differential uniformity for functions was introduced by Ellingsen et al. in 2020. Such a notion is motivated by practical differential cryptanalysis and it extends the classical differential uniformity. We propose here a survey on known constructions together with new results in connection with algebraic curves over finite fields.